

Not ready for the big leagues yet or want racing to be a little more casual? No problem! FFRs have been held at the Club for over 20 years with the sole intention of encouraging keelboat race participation in a friendly series where we learn by participating and meeting other members. Members will be notified of the Zoom meeting details for this season kick-off event via an eRoyal.